

Johnson County Youth Fair 2025

General Superintendents—Keely McCrady and Holly Bacon

Special Rules

General

1. Entries are subject to the Johnson County Junior Livestock Show & Youth Fair General Rules and Regulations and to the Special Rules in this section. Where Special Rules conflict with other rules, Special Rules prevail.
2. Entries will be judged in two divisions based on age at date of show:
 - Junior: 3rd – 8th grade
 - Senior: 9th – 12th grade
3. Exhibitors may enter only one entry in each division, but may enter more than one division.
4. Non-food items must not have been previously shown in the Johnson County Youth Fair.
5. No substitutions will be allowed. Exhibitor must compete with the item that was listed on their entry forms.
6. All entries must be the work of the exhibitor.
7. Any entry not conforming to the stated rules will be disqualified.
8. All decisions of the judges and superintendents are final.
9. Exhibitor name must not be on entries, recipes or instructions.
10. All Grand & Reserve Grand Champions will be sold in the auction on Saturday, with the exception of decorated cakes and clothing, which will be awarded prize money. However, each exhibitor may only sell one Youth Fair item in auction. In the case that an exhibitor earns more than one sale slot, the item to be auctioned will be selected based on the priority card completed by the exhibitor at check-in. The sales committee will determine the number of slots allotted for Youth Fair entries.
11. All Youth Fair entries must be small enough that the exhibitor can carry the entry through the auction ring without assistance.
12. Items must be taken into the auction ring exactly as they were entered in the Youth Fair for judging. No additional decorations or frames, etc. are allowed on items. Exhibitors are not required to bring the baked goods entered for judging through the auction ring.
13. Youth Fair is not a premium sale and buyers take possession of the items purchased. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to contact the buyer to make arrangements to get the exhibits to the buyer(s) within two weeks after the buyer list is provided to the exhibitor. All deliveries must be made prior to the exhibitor receiving the funds from the auction. All exhibitors with baked good entries in the auction are required to bake a fresh product for the buyer(s) – do not bring the fresh baked item to the buyer at the auction.
14. All Grand and Reserve Champion recipes will be retained and included in the “Youth Fair Book of Champions” which is given to the Youth Fair judges the following year.
15. Youth Fair will be split into two locations. Edible items (pies, cookies, cakes, bread, and candy) will be submitted at the White Building on the Sheriff Posse Grounds located at 1315 S. Main Street, Cleburne 76031.
Non-edible items (decorated cakes, art, photography, crafts, creative stitchery and clothing) will be submitted at the AgriLife Extension Office located at 109 W. Chambers Street, Cleburne 76033. The schedule is as follows:
 - Entry check-in:
 - Monday 2:00 pm – 8:00 pm (both locations)
 - Judging: Tuesday

- Posting of Results: Wednesday at 8:00am at both locations; Grand, Reserve and Top 10 in each category will also be posted online.

- Entry pick-up:

White Building- with the exception of Grand and Reserve, all items may be picked up from 8:00am- 1:00pm. All food items will be discarded starting at 1:00pm to facilitate clean-up; however, ribbons and note cards can be picked up until 6:00pm at Agrilife Extension Office.

Agrilife Extension Office- with the exception of Grand and Reserve, all items may be picked up from 8:00 am – 6:00pm.

All entries, ribbons and note cards not picked up by 6:00pm Wednesday will be discarded.

- Saturday 12:00 pm – Grand and Reserve Grand Champions group photo in lobby of Cleburne Conference Center

Rules That Apply to All Baked Goods

(Candy, Cookies, Cakes, Breads, Pies)

1. All entries must be accompanied with the recipe at the time of check in. The recipe must be typed in black ink on one side of one 8 ½ x 11 sheet of plain, white printer paper with no clip art or photographs, colored ink or added decorations – failure to follow this rule will be grounds for disqualification. The recipe must include the recipe name, all ingredients, including garnishes, along with all steps on how to prepare the baked good. The recipe shall not include the exhibitor's name. Please do not attach the recipe to the entry as it will be attached during check-in.

2. All baked goods must be made from scratch.

3. The judges will taste all entries; therefore food safety is critical.

4. To comply with the rules above, the following ingredients and items will not be allowed:

- Cake mixes or other packaged baking mixes such as pancake mix and cake powder
- Prepared pie crusts or other prepared dough
- Items requiring refrigeration – the list below is not a complete listing:
 - Cream cheese
 - Cool whip or whipped cream toppings or fillings
 - Meringue
 - Cream pies, custard pies, buttermilk pies, chess pies, curd pies, sweet potato pies, pumpkin pies – please see additional information in the pie section for acceptable pie entries
 - Eggs that have not been cooked and eggs in items left out at room temperature for an extended period of time before being cooked
 - Fresh fruit as a garnish
 - Alcohol, excluding flavored extracts

5. Containers: All baked goods must be covered with a non-colored clear material (Press'n Seal is acceptable) and be in a disposable container. Inexpensive hard plastic or metal containers are not considered disposable. No glass containers allowed.

Examples of acceptable containers:

- Non-colored, clear plastic disposable cake covers
- Any disposable container such as a non-colored foil pan, plain white paper plate or covered cardboard inserted into a clear sealable bag
- Non-colored foil pan or cardboard covered with foil and then covered with clear plastic wrap
- Non-colored foil container with clear plastic lid

Examples of containers that are not acceptable:

- Any colored or decorated container – no colored foil containers or colored paper plates
 - No added decorations, including doilies, decorative cardboard, or paper holders except used to bake muffins or cup cakes
 - Cardboard cake boxes
 - If plate or container has color or decoration, cover it with foil so that it is hidden
 - Space is limited - containers that exceed the size of the exhibit by 3” per side will not be accepted
6. See additional rules specific to each type of baked good.

Candy

1. Exactly 9 pieces of the same type of candy from the recipe entered in a container included on the list of acceptable containers.
2. Cake/cookie balls are considered a candy. Cake/Cookie balls cannot include non-edible accessories such as cake pop sticks.
3. Entries will be judged on texture, appearance, color, level of difficulty and flavor.

Cookies

1. Exactly 9 cookies from the recipe entered in a container included on the list of acceptable containers.
2. This category does not include cake/cookie balls.
3. Examples of cookies (entries are not limited to this list) are drop cookies, bars and brownies.
4. Entries will be judged on outside appearance, texture, level of difficulty and flavor.

Cakes

1. Cakes must be entered in a container included on the list of acceptable containers and shall either be one large cake or six cupcakes.
 2. This category does not include cake/cookie balls.
- Entries will be judged on outside appearance, frosting if applicable, internal appearance, color, level of difficulty and flavor.

1. Breads must be entered in a container included on the list of acceptable containers and shall be one loaf or bread item unsliced, six muffins or six rolls.
2. Entries will be judged on outside appearance, crust, volume, texture, level of difficulty and flavor.

Pies

1. Pies must be a traditional pie entered in a non-decorative round aluminum foil pie pan and shall be one single pie with a pastry piecrust on bottom. An additional piecrust on top is acceptable.
2. Crust must be prepared from scratch and crust recipe must be included on the recipe sheet (include ingredients and steps.)
3. Due to refrigeration requirements for most pies, only variations of fruit and nut pies made from a traditional recipe using eggs, sugars and no added milk will be acceptable.
4. Entries will be judged on outside appearance, crust, filling, level of difficulty and flavor.

Canned Goods

1. All entries must be accompanied with the recipe at the time of check in. The recipe must be typed in black ink on one side of one 8 ½ x 11 sheet of plain, white printer paper with no clip art, colored ink or added decorations – failure to follow this rule will be grounds for disqualification. The recipe must include all ingredients, including garnishes, and include the steps used to make the canned good along with the yield (what size jar and how many jars the recipe makes). The recipe shall not include the student's name. Please do not attach recipe to entry as it will be attached during check-in.

2. All canned foods must have been canned since the previous show and processed by hot water bath or pressure cooker canning method. The recipe must include the canning method used.

3. Products for canning may have been bought, but the exhibitor must have canned them.

4. Pectin may be used such as commercially available, but no artificial coloring will be accepted. Red-hots used in pickle products are considered flavoring and are allowed.

5. Each participant must bring 1 pint sized standard or wide mouth jar that is approximately 5 inches in height and do not have decorative lids. Jars must be sealed properly and jar lids and rings must not have rust or corrosion.

Each jar will be opened, tasted by the judges and then discarded for food safety reasons. (NOTE: in the event of a Grand or Reserve placing, a second unopened jar will need to be gifted to the buyer.)

6. Entries will be judged according to the following:

- Pack – jars filled to the appropriate headspace, no sediment in the bottom of the jar, proper proportion of solid to liquid
- Color – characteristic of type, free from discoloration
- Free from imperfections – pieces same size and shape, no ragged edges
- Flavor

Art

1. All art entries must be entirely painted or drawn by hand. Mixed media work is considered a craft.

2. Art must be matted, framed or mounted on cardboard. The use of canvas is permitted.

3. Entries must be original, not "paint-by-number".

4. Exhibitor must cover signature on item entered for judging purposes.

5. Entries will be judged on time and effort involved, quality of work, creativity and good use of materials.

Crafts

1. Each entry must be accompanied with step-by-step instructions of how craft was completed. The instructions must be typed in black ink on one side of one 8 ½ x 11 sheet of plain, white printer paper with no clip art or photographs, colored ink or added decorations – failure to follow this rule will be grounds for disqualification.
